CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between bidders, the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the Auctioneer cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above five pounds 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion.
- III. In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Seller.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are returned within ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm holes, stained or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble Servants,

The Amherst Library.

PREFACE.

THIS magnificent Collection of choice and rare printed Books and Manuscripts was formed in the course of many years by Lord Amherst of Hackney, by purchases both private and from the sales of the many famous libraries which have occurred during the last half century. Sad circumstances, well known to the public, have compelled the noble owner to part with his collection, formed with so much knowledge, skill, acumen and expense.

It comprises, as will be seen, very many excessively rare and some unique items from the earliest presses to those at the end of the seventeenth century. It is especially remarkable for the extraordinary number of books printed by CAXTON, of which there are no less than fifteen; besides many from the presses of the direct successors of Caxton, as well as those of the very first printers in London, Oxford, Cambridge, Norwich, and other English localities.

There is also a grand series of First and Early English Bibles, New Testaments, Prayer Books, Psalters, Primers and other Service Books of the XVth and XVIth centuries; as well as many very rare Treatises by the English reformers and their opponents.

It contains also many English MSS. by writers of the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries, including Wicliffe versions of the New Testament.

Other sections comprise rare books by the Church Fathers, writers on Jurisprudence, the Sciences and Arts, Gardening, the Occult Sciences, General Literature, Geography, Voyages and Travels in America, Travels to the Holy Land, History, Heraldry, Biography, etc.

Many of the books are in beautiful bindings, and comprise specimens from the Libraries of King Henry VII, King Henry VIII, Queen Catherine I of Aragon, King Edward VI, Queen Elizabeth, King James I, Henry Prince of Wales, King Charles I and II, King James II, Queen Anne, King George I, Henry II of France and Diane de Poitiers, Louis XIII and Louis Philippe; besides those of Commoners like De Thou, Marguerite d'Ailly, Archbishop Laud, Archbishop Parker, Lomenie de Brienne, Guillaume du Choul, Jean Grolier, Sir K. Digby, Mme. Adelaide of France, T. Maioli, Card. Julio de Medicis, Mirabeau l'Ainé, Card. de Richelieu, Thomas Wotton and others.

The productions of the Continental Presses are of the rarest character, comprising several unique and many excessively rare specimens of prototypographers.

But to call attention to a tenth part of the noteworthy books, would make the preface of an inordinate length. Every detail has been given in the catalogue, and neither time nor trouble has been spared in its compilation.

A difference may be noticed between the number of lots in this catalogue and the number of items separately described by Mr. Seymour de Ricci in the hand-list of the library compiled by him at the request of Lord Amherst. This is caused by every piece having been separately numbered by Mr. Seymour de Ricci, whereas in this catalogue, where two or more works have been bound together in one volume, they have not been divided but catalogued together as one lot, and numbered as such (see lots 20, 29, 179, 180, 469, 507 and others).

Though the Library has been catalogued for a sale by auction, on the dates indicated, Lord Amherst has authorised us to state that, if we receive meanwhile a satisfactory offer for it en bloc, it may be accepted.

Seeing how many of the finest and rarest printed books and manuscripts are of peculiarly English interest, it is to be hoped that means may yet be found for securing the collection for the Nation.

SOTHEBY, WILKINSON & HODGE.

(stained throughout), violet morocco extra, g. e. by F. Bedford sm. 8vo
* * All these pieces appear to have been in the library of the famous Nuremberg collector, Bilibald Pirckheimer, whose ex-libris was designed by Albert Dürer. They passed through the libraries of Lord Arundel and the Duke of Norfolk, and were afterwards sold by the Royal Society, whose stamp they bear.
- 21 ALONSO (O Alfonso) DA CARTAGENA. DOCTRINAL DE LOS CAVALLEROS. Este libro se llama Doctrinal de los Cavalleros en que estan copiladas ciertas leyes e Ordenanzas que estan en los fueros e Partidas de los Reynos de Castilla y de Leon, etc. hizo e Ordeno el muy Rev. thick sm. folio

* * THIS INTERESTING AND VERY VALUABLE VOLUME comes from the Crawford sale, and was sold in these rooms in 1887 for £500. The BLOCK-BOOK is EXTRAORDINARILY FINE, and owes its preservation to its inclusion with the other pieces in the binding, which was probably done just after the date of the MS. in 1478. It is the fourth edition according to Sotheby and the second according to Heineken. The other pieces in the volume are also EXCEEDINGLY RARE, and of great interest.

- 30 APOCALYPSIS S. JOHANNIS. BLOCK-BOOK XVth Century. Five Leaves, two of them partly coloured (perhaps at a later period) of Sotheby's third (Heineken's fifth) Edition of the Xylographic Apocalypse. The leaves are 14, 15, 18, 19 and 20 of a complete copy. They are probably from the same copy as the eleven leaves presented by Uffenbach to the Francfort Library in the XVIIIth century, and are apparently the five leaves bought by Griffiths (of Wadham College, Oxford), at B. Delessert's sale in 1852. Of this edition only two perfect and six imperfect copies in fragments are known. The margins are cut close, and the plates are mounted on cartridge paper, but they are very clean impressions

Cambridge, T. Buck and R. Daniel, 1638*

- * * * Perhaps the finest Bible ever printed at Cambridge, and which served as the Standard Text for many subsequent editions. There is however a remarkable typographical error in Acts vi, 3, where "YE" instead of "WE may appoint" is printed. This blunder, first printed in this edition, was repeatedly followed by other printers. The beautiful binding is ascribed to Hugh Hutchinson about 1650. No finer copy could be wished for. It is enclosed in a modern oak case, lined with velvet, with catch lock.

- * * This is the SECOND EDITION of this work, first translated and printed by Caxton in 1486-7. This COPY IS PROBABLY THE ONLY ONE EXISTING, as after diligent search no other copy has been discovered. It was originally Heber's, and Lowndes cites it as the only copy known. It was afterwards successively in the libraries of Philip Bliss and Cecil Dunn Gardner. It has Bliss's initial, as usual with him, before sign. b.
- 129 Bongarsius (Jacobus) Gesta Dei per Francos; sive Orientalium Expeditionum et Regni Francorum Hierosolimitani Historia nunc primum edita, 2 vol. in 1, half calf (from Miss Curver's library)

MCCCCXXXIX (1539)

- * * AN EXCESSIVELY RARE EDITION of Cardinal Quignon's Reformed Roman Breviary with the revised Preface to Pope Paul III. It seems to be unknown to Liturgical Collectors. There was an edition of the same date in small quarto issued in Paris by O. Maillard. It contains the Pope's Bull against King Henry VIII. This Breviary was largely used in compiling the reformed English Liturgies. Its use was finally interdicted by Pope Pius V in 1588. There is a peculiarity in the heading of the Preface of this copy (or edition) it beginning with "strum," the top line which would read "Ad nos—" being omitted by the printer. It must be either the second or third of the Paris editions.

- 137 BREYDENBACH (BERNARD DE) SANCTARUM PEREGRINATIONUM IN MONTEM SYON AD VENERANDO CHRISTI SEPULCHRUM IN JHERUSALEM; atque in Montem Synai ad divam Virginem Katherinam Opusculum, etc. lit. goth. Versi ; Psalmi aliquot in Versus item Graecos nuper à diversis translati, EDITIO PRIMA, ruled in red, signature of THO. RUD and other writings on title, old French brown morocco gilt, g. e.*

8vo. (Paris.) R. et H. Stephanus, s. a. (c. 1564)

* * * The earliest of all the editions of the celebrated Paraphrase, with the Dedicatory Epigram to Mary Queen of Scots.

12mo. Antwerpiae ex officina Chr. Plantini, 1566

* * * This is one of the three early editions of Buchanan's Paraphrase, having the words "nunc primum edita" on title. The earliest is generally considered to be the undated one of Estienne. [See above].

- 154 BUNYAN (JOHN) GRACE ABOUNDING TO THE CHIEF OF SINNERS ; or a Brief and Faithfull Relation of the Exceeding Mercy of God in Christ to his poor Servant John Bunyan, FIRST EDITION, perfect and a very good copy, but a few plain margins slightly torn, original sheep

12mo. Printed by George Larkin, 1666

* * * This FIRST EDITION of Bunyan's remarkable autobiography is much rarer than the "Pilgrim's Progress." Only one copy is recorded in Livingston's Auction Prices.

- 155 Bunyan (John) Grace Abounding to the Chief of Sinners, corrected and much enlarged now by the Author, the fifth edition corrected, original sheep (loose in cover), scarce
12mo. printed for N. Ponder, 1686

- 156 BUNYAN (JOHN) THE PILGRIMS PROGRESS, from this World to that which is to Come, delivered under the Similitude of a Dream, THE FIFTH EDITION with additions, portrait of the Author dreaming, left hand (differing from that in the edition described below), and a woodcut of the Martyrdom of Faithfull on p. 128 (no other plates), modern crushed green morocco extra, line tooled, g. e. by Riviere, fine tall copy (5¼ by 3½ in.)
sm. 8vo. printed for Nath. Ponder at the Peacock in the Poultry, near the Church, 1680

* * * THIS IS THE GENUINE FIFTH EDITION. The advertisement on reverse of the portrait mentions the disposal of the fourth impression, and calls this the "Fifth Impression," for which were "provided Thirteen Copper Cuts for such as desire them." This copy is without them. Five pp. of Ponder's Advertisements are printed at the end. Both these editions, this and the following lot, ARE EXCESSIVELY RARE, and perhaps these and Offor's copies are the only perfect ones known. Lowndes notes another "Fifth" Edition, dated 1681, of which he says "the only two copies known are in the possession of George Offor."

- 157 Bunyan (John) THE PILGRIM'S PROGRESS from This World to that which is to Come, delivered under the Similitude of a Dream, THE FIFTH EDITION WITH ADDITIONS, engraved portrait of Bunyan dreaming, with advertisement relating to the Sixth Edition on recto, and 13 copper-plate engravings (5 pp. of advertisements at end), original calf, A FINE, LARGE AND PERFECT COPY, with some rough fore edges (measures 5½ by 3¼ in.)

12mo. printed for Nath. Ponder at the Peacock in the Poultry near the Church, 1682

* * * Although called "Fifth Edition" on the title, the advertisement on the reverse of Bunyan's portrait shows that this is really the SIXTH EDITION. "Having found good acceptance among the People to the Carrying off of the Fifth Impression . . . and observing that many Persons desired to have it illustrated with Pictures . . . besides those that were ordinarily printed to this Sixth Impression, hath provided Thirteen Copper-plates for such as desire them." Bunyan's portrait is a very fine original impression; he is leaning on his right, the lion in his den below, City of Destruction above his left shoulder, Christian midway above, proceeding towards the Straight Gate. The thirteen engravings [with Bunyan's Verses] were issued separately, and those who desired to purchase them separately, and those who desired them inserted in their copies, could have them so from the publisher. But undoubtedly some copies of this set of cuts were purchased by people who had already some edition, and inserted by themselves, hence the confusion as to copies with plates. In this copy the set of plates has been bound in by the original publisher. It

- * * * The original French version of the "Dictes and Sayings," translated by Earl Rivers and printed by Caxton, c. 1477. This copy, it would be nice to think, was the very one lent by Louys de Bretaylles to Earl Rivers during their voyage to Spain in July 1473. This MS. is especially attractive to English collectors as the original of the Dictes and Sayings of the Philosophers, printed by Caxton in England, from the translation made by Lord Rivers. It was the first book in which Caxton's name appeared. Guillaume de Tignonville translated the Ditz Moraulx about the end of the fourteenth century, from a Latin original (Dicta Philosophorum) which seems never to have been printed. Only four MSS. of the French work are recorded by Haenel, which is a sufficient proof of its rarity, and of the value of the present codex. This MS. is particularly remarkable for its costume and architecture, furniture and interior decoration of the period. The section in which Homer's sayings are described, ends thus:—"Et dist riens nest en ce monde plus vile que mentir. Et na aucun bien en ung qui est menteur et coustumier de mentir"; after which there is added in a handwriting of the early part of the sixteenth century, "comme Meung alz Pierre de la Vacherye," to which a handwriting of the sixteenth century has subjoined the words, "secretaire du Roy qui discontinue de ce faire."

- 179 CAXTON. DICTES OR SAYINGS OF THE PHILOSOPHERS—CHRISTINE OF PISA'S MORALE PROVERBES [CAXTON, 1477-8], black letter, long lines, the "Dictes" 29 lines to a full page; the "Morale Proverbs" 28 lines, without marks of any kind [Blades, Nos. 10 and 13, type No. 2], "(h) Ere endeth the book namede the dictes or Sayengis of the Philosophers, empryntede by me William Caxton at Westmestre the year of our lorde M.CCCC.LXXVII, etc. ['The Morale Proverbs,' emprinted by Caxton in Fevever the Colde Season]", in 1 vol. old calf gilt sm. folio. (1477-78)

* * This FIRST EDITION of the DICTES OR SAYINGS is the FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN ENGLAND. It is a fine large and clean copy, measuring $10\frac{7}{8}$ by $7\frac{7}{8}$ in. It wants the three blanks and the two last ll. (the latter supplied in MS.) but has the very important leaf with the date.

The "MORALE PROVERBES" IS PERFECT AND FINE, consisting of 4 ll. with an original blank. Only 5 perfect, 1 made perfect, and 6 imperfect copies are known of the Dictes and Sayings, only 6 copies, including this one, being in private hands. Of the Morale Proverbs this is the finest of the three copies known, the others being in the Rylands and Christie Miller libraries. From the Osterley Park (Earl of Jersey's) library.

- 180 CAXTON. CHASTYSING OF GODDES CHYLDREN [1491]—TRETYSSE OF LOVE, 1493. ¶ The Prouffitable boke for Mānes Soule / And right comfort—able to the body / and Specyally in adversitee & tribulacyon / whiche boke is called THE CHASTYSING OF GODDES CHYLDERN, black letter [types No. 6 for text and No. 87 for title only, Blades, No. 90], double columns, 36 lines, 48 ll. signs. A-B, the 2 prel. ll. not included, n. p. d. or n. [1491?].—"THIS TRETYSSE IS OF LOVE AND SPEAKETH of iiii of the most SPECYALL LOVES THAT BEN IN THE WORLDE," etc. black letter, double columns, 36 lines, (48 ll.) type No. 6, with a line of type 7 on first page (Blades, No. 91), "Thus endeth this present boke whiche treateth fyrst of the Glorious Passion of our Savyour," etc. [Caxton's small device on recto of last leaf] [1493]; in 1 vol. modern brown morocco, blind stamped ornaments, with a coroneted crest on sides, FINE COPIES, measuring $10\frac{1}{2}$ by $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. sm. folio

* * These were probably the earliest books issued by Wynkyn de Worde with Caxton type. The volume comes from the Aylesford library. BOTH OF THESE EXCESSIVELY RARE WORKS are perfect and very fine. The "Chastysing" is the only Caxton book with a title. Ten other perfect copies are known, seven being in public libraries. Of the Tretyse of Love only seven other perfect copies are known, six being in public libraries, the seventh at Chatsworth

- 181 CAXTON. THE GAME AND PLAY OF THE CHESS MORALIZED [1475-6] (translated from the French of Jehan de Vignay, who translated from the Italian of Jacobus de Cessolis), black letter, long

- * * The EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST EDITION OF CAXTON'S GAME AND PLAY OF CHESS, probably printed at Bruges, 1475-6, printed on stout paper. Only four other perfect copies are known, two in public collections, the others in the Pembroke and Holford libraries. This was Lord Petre's copy, and has his ex-libris; it is large and perfect, measuring 10½ by 7½ in. It is the second book produced by Caxton following the Recueil des Histoires de Troye. This copy was not known to Blades.

- 182 CERVANTES (MIGUEL DE) EL INGENIOSO HIDALGO DON QUIXOTE DE LA MANCHA (primera parte), en Brussellas por Roger Vulpus, impressor de sus Atlegas, etc. año 1607; SEGUNDA PARTE del Ingenioso Cavallero Don Quixote de la Mancha, ib. por Huberto Antonio, impressor jurado etc. 1616; 2 vol. some ll. in part I stained, margins of part II written on, OTHERWISE PERFECT AND GOOD, uniform modern purple morocco, full gilt ornamental backs, line sides with emblematic ornaments, broad and rich gilt tooled inside morocco borders, g. e. cr. 8vo

- * * These are the first Brussels editions of each part. Part I is the fifth edition of the text, part II the second. Both reprint the text of the original editions before the alterations made in 1608. The volumes come down from the Mead library through Hanrott, Hibbert and Richard Ford, the well-known Spanish scholar. His autograph is on the flyleaf of part I and on both titles, and the title of part I bears the stamp of S. Mead in red. EXTREMELY RARE.

Barret, 1612; THE SECOND PART OF THE HISTORY OF THE VALOROUS AND WITTY KNIGHT ERRANT DON QUIXOTE of the Mancha . . . now translated into English, printed for Edward Blount, 1620; 2 vol. stamped calf, with ex-libris and signatures of Richard Ford and D. F. MacCarthy sm. 4to. 1612-20
- * * * THE GENUINE FIRST EDITION OF EACH PART OF THIS CELEBRATED FIRST ENGLISH TRANSLATION BY THOS. SHELTON, EXTREMELY RARE. No engraved title was issued with this FIRST EDITION of the First Part; but one was issued with the Second Part in 1620; also one without a date for the First Part. The Second Part wants the engraved title. It appears to be otherwise complete, unless ¶ 4 of Part I (which is much brighter than the other ll.) is in facsimile. Part I is quite intact as regards margins, but Part II has some head-lines shaved.
- 187 Cervantes (Miguel de) THE HISTORY OF THE VALOROUS AND WITTIE KNIGHT DON QUIXOTE DE LA MANCHA, TRANSLATED INTO ENGLISH [by THOS. * * * UNIQUE. THE ONLY GENUINE PERFECT COPY KNOWN, though a copy made perfect is in the Longleat Library. It is the first book printed in the English language. It has the original blank before the title, on the recto of which is the inscription: "Sir Th. Fairfar the elder, Knight, oweth this booke." It is the Osterley Park (Earl of Jersey's) copy which sold in 1885 for £1820. It was during the progress of this book through the press that Caxton (as he informs us in the Prologue to the Third Book) learned the New Art of Printing. The translation into English was "begun at Bruges, continued in Ghent and finished in Cologne." It is well-known that the Duchess of Burgundy corrected the English of the first pages of the translation. The title and 2 last leaves are mended, and one or two letters in the last leaf but one are defective. The text is rubricated and large initials are supplied in red. It measures 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ by 7 in.

but that was an ordinary Common Prayer with the Psalms, which this has not. It consists of the usual preliminaries, with the Morning and Evening Prayers, the Litany, the Collects, Epistles and Gospels for the year, and the usual offices. K. Edward is mentioned in the Litany, but there is no special prayer for him. Lowndes records an edition of the same date in the White Knights Library which may not be this. This, on the other hand, should perhaps have the Psalter at the end, as it finishes with the Communion.

- 710 Prayer. [Q. ELIZABETH]. printed in Dublin by John Francton, 1608 (colophon in Irish)

- * * THE FIRST EDITION OF THE COMMON PRAYER PRINTED IN THE IRISH CHARACTER, EXCESSIVELY RARE. The dedication to Sir A. Chichester is in English, and there is a modern transcript of a dedication to K. James by the translator Wm. Daniel, Archbishop of Tuam, inserted. On the reverse of the title are contemporary Irish autographs of "McDonnell (? the first translator of the N. T. in Irish)" and "McBruin," and in English GODFRAY DANIEL, and Lancelot Lourder. It afterwards belonged to the well-known Non-juror "Tho. Baker Coll. Jo. Socius ejectus," whose autograph is on the first leaf of dedication. No copy has occurred for sale since the Lakelands (W. H. Crauford's) sale, and the only other copy, viz. Bp. Daly's, was sold in 1868.

- * * AN UNUSUALLY FINE COPY OF THE EXCESSIVELY RARE FIRST EDITION of this interesting work. Its importance in connection with the English Liturgy and Plain Song is well known. The author was organist of St. George's Chapel, Windsor, and compiler of the first English Concordance to the Bible. The present is probably the finest copy procurable; and an autograph note of Wm. Pickering inserted states it was the finest copy he had ever seen. The last copy sold was that of F. S. Ellis in 1901, which though slightly imperfect realised £202.

* * AN EXTREMELY INTERESTING AND VALUABLE MS. Written by John Islip Abbot of Westminster (1500-1532) probably for King Henry VII, whose chapel at Westminster he built. The devices in the volume are similar to those used in the chapel, with the Abbot's punning rebus, and the white and red roses united. In the fly-leaves are several Prayers to Saints, and signatures of Katherine Fortescue, Katherine Poole, and Elizabeth Warneforde. Specimens of binding for Henry VII are extremely rare. * * THIS IS NOT ONLY THE FINEST COPY KNOWN; IT IS ALSO THE
 ONLY PERFECT COPY EXTANT of one of the earliest printed Sarum
 Primers, and by its contents one of the fullest and most important.
 It was formerly in Lord Hampton's library, and fetched £146 at his sale in 1881. Between signatures C and H there are sixteen leaves containing "An invocacyon gloryous named the Psalter of Jesus," bearing signatures X and X X. This Psalter of Jesus is generally wanting. After the Calendar the text begins with "The Dayes of the Weke moralysed," in English verse; then follows
 "The Maner to leve well . . Cōpyled by mayster Johan Quentin . .
 Translated into Englyshe by Robert Copland prynter at London."
 The oval woodcuts in the Calendar have the mark of Geoffry Tory, the Lorraine Cross. The London publisher of this edition, "Johan Growte," may be identical with John Gowge, or Gough, of Cheapside, who published a Salisbury Primer in 1536. It has the exlibris of John S. Packington in cover.

747 PRIMER. [English, Salisbury Use, K. Henry VIII] [wants title], at end :

 a man's life in the Calendar, woodcuts in the text and figured and ornamental initials; VERY IMPERFECT, containing 94 ll. only (wants 54 ll.); commencing with the Almanack (MDXXXVII-MDLIX), with the Calendar complete, and ending with the colophon at end of table;
 some portions of text run through with a pen; old calf

* * AN EXCESSIVELY RARE EDITION, of which no fully described perfect copy can be traced, and there is no record of the sale of one by auction. It came from J. T. Simes's collection, sold in 1886.

- 749 PRIMER. [K. HENRY VIII]. [The Prymer in Englysh and Latin set furth by the Kyng's Majestie, etc. with The Pistels and Gospels of the Sondayes and festivall holy dayes, newly corrected and amended], black letter and roman (the Primer wants all before B ii, also C ii, S 6; several initial letters have been cut out and many erasions made with ink, but it has the colophon leaf at end with the king's licence; most of the initials are illuminated in gold and colours; the Pistels and Gospels commence on A j without title, and want after C iii), in 1 vol. old calf (sold not subject to return)
sm. 4to. [Colophon to Primer] Imprinted at London within the precinct of the late dissolved house of the Grey Friars by Richard Grafton printer to the Princes grace the VI daie of September, 1545
- * * Although imperfect, this volume is interesting, as it has several Elizabethan signatures, the most notable being one or two of "G. SHREWBURY," probably George Talbot the Sixth Earl, friend of Q. Elizabeth and Keeper of Mary Q. of Scotland. Other contemporary signatures are of "Wm. Allroyd" and "George Goodwyne," and there is a later one of "Nath. Boothouse, 1689." The text has been tampered with by a rabid Protestant. The Pistels were perhaps printed by J. Herforde the same year as the Primer.
- 750 PRIMER. [K. HENRY VIII, 1545]. Another copy, black letter, IMPERFECT; commencing with the Calendar for July, and ending on A 4; several intervening leaves defective; contains in all 127 ll. sold not subject to return, modern blue morocco antique by Birdsall

sm. oblong 4to. Lugduni, apud Carolum Pesnot, 1579

* * A VERY INTERESTING though imperfect volume. The book is so rare that we cannot trace a collation of it. Anyhow this copy wants about 30 ll. beyond the number it actually contains. But it is the DEDICATION COPY TO KING JAMES VI OF SCOTLAND BY THE COMPOSER, JOHN SERVIN, who was probably Master of Music to the King. There was an advocate of Tours, Louys Servin, who translated King James's Basilikon Doron into French, who may have been a relation of the musician, since both appear to have been in the service of King James.

It is most remarkable for the two large maps in the Supplement, the first entitled "Orbis typus Universalis juxta Hydrographorum traditionem," with outlying indications of New Spain; the second headed "Tabula Terre Noe" is "The Admiral's Map." "Hic terra cum adjacentibus insulis inventa est per Columbum Januensem ex Mandato Regis Castellae." The last map in the Supplement is that of the Province of LORRAINE, the first map of that province ever done,

- 863 SPECULUM HUMANAЕ SALVATIONIS. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (110 ll.
11 by 7½ in.), written in neat black letter, long lines, 35 to a full page, red and black, by an English scribe, with a Table and Calendar, Golden Numbers, etc. with 54 RUDE OUTLINE SKETCHES in pen and ink, a few badly coloured, original oak boards, deerskin (a portion of the deerskin cover torn off)

sm. folio. [INITIO SÆC. XV, c. 1400]

* * An interesting Manuscript as showing the technique of the early illuminators. It was evidently the original intention to paint a miniature on the text of each page, but in most instances only the general outlines have been given; and many of the spaces intended for miniatures are left blank. There are several indications in the MS. that it is of English origin.

- 864 [SPECULUM HUMANE SALVATIONIS]. (Folio 1, verso), Dit is die pro-loghe vā den spieghiel onser behoudnisse. Culenborch, with

* * EXCESSIVELY RARE AND, AS A PERFECT COPY, PERHAPS UNIQUE. Two editions of this work were printed by Veldener in the year 1483, the present volume is the edition containing 32 chapters and 128 woodcuts, the other edition contained only 29 chapters and 116 woodcuts. There is probably no finer copy existing, and not more than nine copies are known. It is noticeable for the woodcuts, which include about 100 from the Original Block Book of the Speculum; the type is similar to some used by Caxton.

- 865 SPENSER (EDMUND) THE FAERIE QUEEN; The Shepheards Calendar; together with the other Works of England's Arch-Poet; collected into one volume and carefully corrected (10 separate titles), original calf, gilt back, r. e. with the arms and legend "Insignia Kenelmi Digby, Equitis Aurati" stamped in gold on sides, FINE COPY sm. folio

in a flowing hand in long lines, 36 to a full page, red and black, with prologues and "Summes" to each book (several ll. defective and repaired, but generally in good state, old calf (rebacked)

sm. folio. [written c. 1520]

- * * A VERY INTERESTING AND IMPORTANT MANUSCRIPT. It contains the Gospels and Epistles, finishing with the Epistle to Philemon. There is bound at the end a Tract of 24 pp. entitled "A True Relation of the Life and Sufferings of John Nisbet in Hardill, His last Testimony to the Truth; with a Short Account of his last Words on the Scaffold, December 4th, 1685. The Second Edition Corrected and Amended, Edinburgh by Robert Brown in Forresters Wynd, 1719"; also the UNIQUE AND ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT OF THE TRACT, on 18 leaves. This Tract refers to this Translation of the New Testament by Murdoch Nisbet, and traces its History to the time when John Nisbet was executed. The Translation was printed 1901-4 from this MS. by the Scottish Text Society. There is inserted a 4 pp. Autograph Letter of (Serjeant) James Nisbet to Lady Betty Boswell of Auchinleck, dated May 31, 1725. [From the Auchinleck Library].

sm. 8vo. [Antwerp, Martin Emperour (De Keyser)], 1534-5

- * * An EXTREMELY RARE EDITION of the last edition of Tyndale's New Testament revised by himself. Perhaps the only copy on yellow paper. (Darlow & Moule, No. 6).

- 904 TESTAMENT (THE NEW). [TYNDALE]. black letter (with a calendar). long lines, 36 to a full page, woodcuts, imperfect, beginning with the calendar for February and ending with Cc iii, etc. wanting in all about 24 ll. sold not subject to return, but the majority of the ll. are in good state (size 6 by 3½ in.) old stamped calf
cr. 8vo. [Antwerp, 1536; Day & Seres, 1549]

- * * An EXTREMELY RARE EDITION, printed abroad with German type, probably in Antwerp in 1536, and afterwards issued by Day & Seres in 1549. (Darlow & Moule, No. 51).

- 905 TESTAMENT [TYNDALE]. [THE NEWE TESTAMENT yet once agayne corrected by Willyam Tindale: where unto is added a necessarye Table; wherein easely and lightelye maye be foude any storye con-tayne in the foure Evangelistes, and in the Actes of the Apostles, etc.] (with the Epistles taken oute of the Olde Testament, which are red in the church after the use of Salisbury, etc.), black letter, long lines, 35 to a full page (wants title and 5 prel. ll.) numerous woodcuts, contains numbered fols. CXLIII-CCLIII ending with 8 ll. of Table unpagged, on the reverse of last leaf are the arms of King Henry VIII, old rough calf, AN UNUSUALLY LARGE AND FINE COPY (measuring 8¾ by 5¾ in. all the ll. in excellent condition, with the Earl of Berkshire's 1720 dated ex-libris)

sm. 4to. (Antwerp, M. de Keyser & Simon Coc for Adrian Kempe), 1536

- * * Extremely rare and in fine state. It is the "Mole" edition, so called from the mole on the stone below the foot of S. Paul at the beginning of the Epistle to the Romans. (Fry's No. 8).

- 906 TESTAMENT. [TYNDALE]. The Newe Testament (as above), black letter (title to Epistles within woodcut border), long lines, 38 to a full page, contains fols. I-CXLII, title and prologue to the Epistles and the first page of text, 9 ll. unnumbered, fols. CXLIII-CCLV wanting 4 ll. at beginning, including title, and 9 ll. at end, sold not subject to return, numerous woodcuts, modern stamped calf

sm. 4to. (Antwerp, ib. 1536)

- * * The "Engraver's Mark" edition; EXTREMELY RARE, perfect copies being almost unknown. (Fry's No. 9). A very fair copy.

- 907 Testament. [TYNDALE]. The Newe Testament (as above), black letter, long lines, 38 to a full page, margins of title and some ll. mended at beginning and end, and a few corners in facsimile, otherwise perfect and a good copy, title within woodcut borders, contains 4 prel. ll. including title, fols. sm. 4to. prynted in the yere of Oure Lord God
M.D. and XXXVI (Antwerp as above)

- * * The "Blank Stone" edition. EXCEEDINGLY RARE. (Fry's No. 7). The real printer and publisher of these three extremely rare editions has only recently been discovered by E. Gordon Duff.

- 908 Testament (The New). [Tyndale and Erasmus]. THE NEW TESTAMENT IN ENGLISH after the Greeke trālation annexed wyth the translation of Erasmus in Latin; whereunto is added a Kalendar, and an Exhortation to the readyng of the holy Scriptures made by the same Erasmus wyth the Epistls taken out of the Olde testamēt both in latin and englysh, etc. black and roman letter, double columns, title in red and black, within woodcut border, with E. Whitechurch's monogram below, slightly stained, but A LARGE AND SOUND AND PERFECT COPY in the original binding of oak boards, stamped leather
sm. 4to. excusum Londini in officina Thomae Gualtier pro
J. C. Pridie Calendas Decembris anno Domini 1550

- * * An UNCOMMONLY LARGE AND GOOD COPY of the RARE EDITION, quite perfect, and having a particular title-page unknown to Fry and other bibliographers. It is the fourth edition of Tyndale's English Version with the Latin of Erasmus. VERY RARE. It has several contemporary inscriptions in calendar, etc. "George Shee is ye ryght honar (sic) of this booke witnes hereof Edmund Hyll, Edward Stoninge," etc.

- 909 Testament (The New). [Tyndale and Erasmus]. The New Testament in Latin and English (as above, with the addition of the words "wherūto is added" before "a table necessary to find the Epistles," etc.) title in red and black within woodcut border, margins of title and 2 ll. at end mended, wants 2 ll. of Table at end, otherwise a good copy of a SCARCE EDITION, brown morocco antique, gilt lines and blind stamped ornaments, g. e. by W. Pratt 8vo. ib. 1550

- 910 TESTAMENT (THE NEW). [COVERDALE]. black letter, with woodcuts, long lines, 36 to a full page, begins with prologue to the New Testament on A1, with "The summe of this Gospel" 6 ll. then paged folios CCCLXVIII wanting a leaf or two at end, fol. CCXXXIX in facsimile, a few old stains, otherwise a good large and sound copy, measuring 5½ by 3½ in. old calf, new morocco back, g. e. (from Lord Hampton's library)
sm. 8vo. n. d. p. or n. (1535-7 ?)

- * * An EXTREMELY RARE EDITION OF COVERDALE'S NEW TESTAMENT with the prologues. Only one other copy is said to be known, which is also imperfect, in the Bible Society's library. It was perhaps printed by Nicholson in Southwark, but probably earlier than even the folio of 1535, from which it differs in the reading of Matthew I, 18, where "maryed" instead of "betrothed" is used, the former being the reading of the 1526 edition, the latter that of the 1534 one. (See Darlow & Mouls, No. 13).

- 911 Testament (The New). [COVERDALE]. The New Testament, both in Latin and English after the Vulgare texte ; translated and corrected by Myles Coverdale, and prynted in Paris by Fr. Regnault, MCCCCXXXVIII, in Novembre, double columns, English in black letter, Latin in roman, woodcut initials, title and next 8 ll. and a leaf and half at end in facsimile, some margins cut into, some ll. strained, shrivelled, and lower margins of 2 ll. of table mended, otherwise a fair copy, but sold not subject to return, modern brown morocco antique, sides of a contemporary binding, with a gilt centre ornament used as doublures, g. e. by W. Pratt

sm. 8vo. Paris, F. Regnault, for R. Grafton, and Edward Whitchurch, 1538

* * Coverdale's Revised Authorized Edition, said to have been printed at the expense of Bp. Bonner, but most of the impression was afterwards destroyed by the Inquisition. In consequence, only two or three perfect copies are known. It is probably the first English New Testament printed in France.

- 912 TESTAMENT. [COVERDALE]. "Search the Scripturs. The Newe Testament, faythfully translated, and lately correcte by Myles Coverdale ; with a true concordance in the margent, and many necessary Annotacyons after the chapters declarynge sondry harde places conteyned in the texte. Prynted in the yeare of Oure Lorde MDXXXVIII, set forth wyth the Kynges Licence," black letter, printed in red and black (ends on A n 4 of Table), a very few margins slightly cut into, some scribblings on several pp. a contemporary signature of NICHOLAS HAGGAS before P i, otherwise an unusually clean and sound copy, ruled in red lines throughout, numerous woodcuts, old calf (17th cent.) from W. Baynton's (of Gray's Inn) library thick 12mo. (? Antwerp), 1538

* * AN EXTREMELY RARE EDITION OF COVERDALE'S NEW TESTAMENT, and probably as fine a copy as it is possible to procure. Most known copies, of which there are not more than seven or eight, are imperfect and all end with the A n 4 in the Table as this one does. The late Francis Fry could never obtain a copy. It will be sold not subject to return. This is the copy described by Herbert, and is the first 'Pocket' edition of the New Testament.

- 913 Testament (The New). [Coverdale]. black letter, numerous woodcuts, wanting 6 ll. at the beginning, 3 in the body of the vol. and 2 at end, margins cut into, and one or two ll. slightly defective, but many good ; sold not subject to return, original calf [belonged to a certain "H. Sherbrooke of Oxton," in 1712], A VERY RARE EDITION sm. 8vo. (Antwerp, printed by M. Crom, 1538)

- 914 Testament. [Genevan, by Whittingham]. The New Testament of Our Lord Jesus Christ, conferred diligently with the Greke and best approved translations ; with the arguments and most profitable Annotations of all hard places, etc. [with a Preface by Calvin], cut on title, and ornamental woodcut initials (title soiled, some fore

12mo. At Geneva, printed by Conrad Badius, 1557

- * * EXTREMELY RARE. The first edition of the New Testament in English printed in Geneva, three years before the edition of the Bible known as the Genevan, or "Breeches" version. It is the only portion of the Bible in English printed during the reign of Q. Mary, and is the first containing in English both the division into verses, and the use of italics for words not found in the original Greek.

- 915 Testament (The New). [ENGLISH BEZA-TOMSON, 1576]. The Nevv Testament of Our Lord Jesus Christ, translated out of Greeke by THEOD. BEZA, with brief Summaries of doctrine, etc. and short expositions . . . Englished by L. TOMSON, map (wants last leaf of Table, a few head-lines cut close, otherwise good), modern purple morocco, blind stamped ornaments, inside dentelles, g. e. by C. Murton cr. 8vo. Imprinted by Ch. Barker, in Poules Churchyard, at the Tigres Head, 1576

- * * THE FIRST EDITION of Tomson's Revision of the Geneva New Testament. A mixed copy as usual, some quires at end being apparently of the 1577 issue. (See Darlow and Moule, no. 109).

- 916 Testament. [ROMAN CATHOLIC]. The New Testament of Jesus Christ, faithfully translated into English out of the Authentickall Latin, with Arguments, Annotations, etc. by the English College at Rheimes; set forth the SECOND TIME by the same College now returned to Doway, modern blue morocco gilt, g. e. by Holloway sm. 4to. Antwerp, D. Vereliet, 1600

- 917 Testament (The New). [Rhemish, 1578]. * * * THIS IS AN EXTREMELY INTERESTING BOOK and was apparently NICHOLAS FERRAR'S (Founder of the Nunnery of Little Gidding) OWN COPY, and has MS. notes by him in the four front fly-leaves. The most interesting note is that on the second fly leaf, which is as follows : "IHS This booke was bound by the hands of Mrs. Mary Farrar (sic) (of Little Gidding in Huntingdonshire), who hath wholly dedicated her selfe to the Service of God in the State of Virginitie." The other notes consist of references to writers connected with the subject of the work. The Binders of the Ferrar's Family, of the Arminian Nunnery of Little Gidding, Huntingdonshire, were mostly famous for their needlework bindings. If this and the following lot were bound by "Mistress Mary Ferrar" herself, they must be unique specimens.

[PRINTED AT WESTMINSTER BY WILLIAM CAXTON, 1484 & 1487?]

- * * This volume is made up from the first and second editions. Both are printed in the same form on paper of the same size, and have the same number of lines to a column; the only difference being between the type of the running headlines. The foliation is consecutive throughout, and the paper is the same. The FIRST EDITION wants 7 ff. in various parts, and the last 29 ll. in all 33 ll. and 3 blanks. The SECOND EDITION has 229 ff. No perfect copy of the FIRST EDITION is known except the made-up one of the Spencer Library, and of the SECOND EDITION none of the other four known copies have more than 170 ll. This copy (of the second edition) approaches nearest the Cambridge mixed copy, which has 244 ll. An interesting autograph inscription of a London merchant (probably temp. Henry VIII) occurs on fol. CCCXLVII: "from all evill and mischeef good Lord deliver us. John Levens citizen Draper of London JOHN LEVENS," and on the body of the woodcut horse on the first leaf the same hand apparently has written: "This booke doth lye as fast as a horse can trot."

- 995 VORAGINE (JACOB DE) LEGENDA AUREA, THE GOLDEN LEGEND [CAXTON, 1493], black letter, double columns, 44 lines, with signs. brary Showing History of Printing.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.
LONDON, Dec. 2.—The London Times will announce to-morrow that Lord Amherst's fine collection of Caxtons was disposed of at private sale to-day. Neither the name, the nationality of the purchaser, nor the amount paid will be officially disclosed for the present, but it probably will be suggested on all hands that the new owner is that omniverous purchaser of rare and early printed books, J. Pierpont Morgan.

When the sale of the Amherst Library was first announced Mr. Morgan was willing to purchase the Caxtons en bloc, but Lord Amherst was then unwilling to separate them from the rest of the collection. Mr. Morgan was already the owner of between twenty and thirty Caxtons, but many of them are imperfect, and it is certain that such a series as the sixteen Amherst Caxtons cannot appear in the market again for many years.

These sixteen Caxtons were all printed between 1474 and 1493. One of them is the earliest book printed in English, "The History of Troy," a unique copy, which was sold in 1885 for £1,820, and another, the next earliest, is "The Game and Play of the Chess," one of five known perfect copies.

Most of the others, which have now presumably gone into Mr. Morgan's collection, are both perfect and in fine condition.

The sale of the other books in Lord Amherst's collection will take place at Sotheby's to-morrow. The collection was begun more than fifty years ago with the definite object of illustrating the history of printing and bookbinding from the earliest times down to 1700, and that by only the best and rarest specimens.

The collection contains besides the Caxtons some of the rarest block books in existence, including a 1460 Catholicon, a 1465 Cicero, and a Mazarin Bible. There are two of the first folios of Shakespeare and a genuine first edition of Milton, and the earliest Continental press is equally well represented. The library is very rich in choice bindings of the most celebrated designers and the collection illustrates the whole history of the art.

Representatives of the chief American buyers will be present at the sale, for purchases at which the Chancellor of the Exchequer is said to have granted the British Museum $150,000.

The dispersal of this magnificent library, which will rival the Ashburnham sale, is the result of Lord Amherst's being defrauded by an absconding solicitor.

The Caxtons, as they are popularly known, are the works issued from the press of William Caxton, the first English printer. It was toward the end of 1476 that he set up his wooden printing press at the sign of the Red Pole in the Almonry at Westminster. He had learned the art of printing while abroad, either at Cologne or at Bruges, most likely at the latter place, and from Colard Mansion, a well-known printer of Bruges.
